“THE CIRCLE OF LIFE TURNS FOREVER.”

THE SEMPRE PERCEPTION

Why look for perfection? We feel perfection does not fuel connection; it is neither warm nor welcoming. Purity and purpose are what bring real value. When wood washed ashore becomes a set of chairs accommodating a company of friends who share dinner and joyous moments, that's when material gets meaning.

What once was wreckage, has become a tool of togetherness, generating precious memories for years to come. Our interior concepts are not designed to chase perpetuity; on the contrary, we embrace the passing of time. You see, life never ends, it just transforms. There is always something next. It is a neverending process of transformation. What gives birth, lives and decays, will eventually die. That is the circle of life. Here at Sempre we find peace in the decay of materials. In that exact moment is where real beauty shines through.

LET'S CREATE SOMETHING MAGICAL. TOGETHER!

ECO-FRIENDLY DESIGN IS NOT JUST AN OPTION,
BUT THE ONLY WAY TO GO!

1 PLANET, ALL TOGETHER

The Sempre team is committed to being ecologically responsible and supports sustainable projects all over the planet. Discover some of our ongoing projects.

Per container we ship around the world, we plant 25 trees! Our project in Indonesia focuses on the Kalimantan region in Borneo, home to the Tanjung Puting National Park where we plant local species.

Together with local NGO's we engage communities on the Greek island of Mykonos to remove trash and marine litter from beaches and preventing it from ending up in the oceans. The collected plastic waste will be given a "second life" by being converted into innovative new products, putting into practice our vision of the circle of life.

And finally, each spring local volunteers gather around the mountain ranges of the Alps to restore damaged trails due to rock damage and melting snow.

We are always looking for like-minded people to join our forces and work for a better planet. Let's create a better future for generations to come. Together!

READY, SET, GO!

LEAD TIMES

At Sempre, even the sky isn't the limit. We have no limits. After all, why limit creative people? Do you have a crazy idea or a specific wish? We'll craft it!

Our lead times are highly dependent on the product, the complexity, the order date and the production location. Therefore, we decided to show you our workflow in detail. We store our best-selling products with longer lead times in our warehouse, so they can get to you faster. Please, check out our catalogue to discover which items we store. You can also use the Sempre webstore to view current opportunity items, discover unique pieces, and consult our current stock list.

We do keep individual stocks for retailers or hotels with products they are planning to purchase within a 12 month period.

STOCK ITEMS

PRODUCTION TIME UP TO 10 WEEKS

These products are produced 'a la minute' for you in one of our European production sites.

PRODUCTION TIME UP TO 14 WEEKS

FEUERBAR
GRILL | TERRACE | APRÈS-SKI

After a day on the snowy slopes, indulge in warmth and atmosphere at this unique après-ski bar in the Schlossalm ski area in Bad Hofgastein, Austria. Feuerbar is a unique location that was completely designed by Sempre. The après-ski bar is part of the beautiful neighboring hotel Das Goldberg. Fire is the unifying force in this bar: from a giant barbecue where you fry your satays to built-in grills at your table.

The concept was developed together with Sempre from A to Z. From the logo to the custom-made grills. Every detail was thought over in order to provide a total experience. It was a great pleasure to work on this project with the Das Goldberg team.

Products used in the project

From concept to design we got carte blanche, which unlimited our creativity. Fire became the focal theme of this bar, and we created everything from the logo to the interior. This family has an inspiring mentality and is very professional. Their hands-on approach is uplifting and made us all paint together at some point to meet the opening deadline.

Moscow is a stressful place, and that's exactly why we opened our Sempre Restaurant at this location. It's not just any restaurant, it's an "Embassy of Freedom". When you step inside, the strict laws of Moscow no longer apply, and our free spirit prevails.

Sempre's cuisine has a pseudo-fusion (or should we say confusion) character based on a mono-product concept. Not based on cultures, regions, or religions but experiences, tastes and emotions.

The focus is on excellent techniques, seasonality, sustainability and on boundless creativity. Our food has attitude, personality and honesty and is humble without excess or ego. So come in, and leave the outside world at the door!

Products used in the project

The interior has a calming effect, thanks to exclusively real plants and natural materials. Plastic and refined materials are forbidden, because Sempre believes in the beauty of nature. The space is filled with greenery, and large open windows connecting the inside and outside. The interior stimulates curiosity and transports you into an exciting mystical world without end. And yet it all feels cozy and lively at the same time.

Candles

Floating candles in different colors.

The dimensions of our candle holders can slightly vary as they are handmade. We use moss to fill in any extra space between the candle holder and the candle. Not only does this prevent wax from getting on the candle holder, but it also adds a lovely green touch.

EGGPLANT SALAD - RAHIB

The Lebanese-Antwerp chef Fares Saliba pays an impressive tribute to the food culture of his country with his latest restaurant Little Beirut. You can enjoy some famous mezze, but you can also venture into lesser-known dishes. The Lebanese cuisine offers many options for vegetarians, such as hummus, moutabbal and fattouch. You may be familiar with the baba ganoush recipe, but you might not have come across another famous Lebanese eggplant dish known as 'Rahib' salad. This recipe relies on lots of finely chopped salad ingredients such as parsley, tomatoes and cucumbers, hence why it is called a salad, even though it can be eaten as a dip.

INGREDIENTS

pickle
parsley
eggplant
lemon juice
mint leaves
cucumber [1/2]
spring onion [1/3]
salad tomato [1/3]
crumbled walnuts
extra virgin olive oil [2 tbsp]

RECIPE

Roast the eggplant on a gas stove for about fifteen minutes, turning every few minutes, until well cooked. Cut off the top and bottom of the eggplant and peel off the charred skin with a fork. Put the eggplant in a colander and leave it to drain.

Finely chop the tomatoes, spring onion, cucumber, pickle, mint and parsley. Put these ingredients in a mixing bowl. Crush the eggplant with a pestle to a paste. Add the crushed eggplant to the mixing bowl along with the lemon juice, and olive oil and add a pinch of salt.

Taste the salad and adjust the seasoning if necessary. Add the crumbled walnuts and give a final mix. Place the eggplant salad in a serving bowl and drizzle generously with extra virgin olive oil and add optional garnish. Serve with fresh flatbreads.

FARES' TIP

The vegetables should be chopped up very finely to merge together with the eggplants. Use a pestle and mortar to mash the aubergine to achieve the best texture. Charring the eggplants on the hob brings out the most wonderful smokey flavour and though it can be a little messier to clean up afterwards, you add so much flavour that it really is worth it.

AGE DASHI TOFU

Amsterdammer Ed Balke brought his passion for pure flavors and healthy cuisine to Antwerp South in 1978. It started with an interest in macrobiotics and the discovery of the subtle taste of simple ingredients. He recognized this search for purity in the Japanese way of dealing with food. After a few years in Japan he decided to introduce this then largely unknown cuisine to the Belgian public in his very own restaurant IZUMI. Discover the delights of the homemade tofu dish Age Dashi Tofu. Crispy on the outside, deep-fried soft tofu on the inside served with a sophisticatedly flavored sauce. The Age Dashi Tofu has a robust umami flavor and is a to die for Japanese dish!

INGREDIENTS

ginger
soy sauce
mirin [2 tsp]
sugar [1 tsp]
corn starch
spring onions
dashi [1/2 cup]
firm tofu [300 gr]
dried bonito flakes

RECIPE

Remove excess water from the tofu by wrapping it in a paper towel and let it rest for about 20 minutes with a weight over the tofu. Cut the tofu into smaller pieces and dip each tofu in corn starch. Deep fry the tofu in a deep fryer or skillet. Remove the fried tofu pieces from the oil and leave them on a paper towel to drain the excess oil.

Make the Dashi soy sauce with mirin, and ginger. In the summer, you can opt for a creamy miso sauce, or you can add soy sauce with spring onions and ginger for a fresher flavor.

Place the crispy fried tofu cubes in a bowl and pour the hot Dashi soy sauce over them. For the garnish, take dried bonito flakes and finely chopped spring onions. Grate fresh ginger over the dish for a perfect balance with the fried tofu

ED'S TIP

IZUMI's Age Dashi Tofu is served with homemade tofu, because quality flavored tofu is not easy to find in Belgium. Often chemicals are added or the process is done by machine, and you can taste the difference. IZUMI's homemade tofu is made from organic soybeans that are mixed and cooked. It is an ideal protein substitute for fish or meat. Vegetarians have plenty of choices at IZUMI. After all, Japanese cuisine is full of vegan products. Would you like to learn how to make tofu? This is possible during one of the many workshops at IZUMI!

PANTZARI SALAD

MZE is the place to be for traditional Greek cuisine. Imagine a table full of mezze to share with friends and family in a modern and trendy establishment. Tspoura sto fourno is a classic, delicate and straightforward Greek recipe for a big Dorade fish. You can find this fish in different countries with different names. For example, “Daurade Royale” In France, Germany, USA & Canada, also known as “Sea Bream” in UK, “Goldbrasse” in Germany, “Dourada” in Portugal, and “Tspoura” in Greece. No matter how you call it, you will get in love with cooking it.

INGREDIENTS

lemon [1/4]
flat parsley
cream [75 ml]
pressed garlic
red onion [150 gr]
balsamic vinegar
raspberry vinegar
cooked beet [1 kg]
Greek organic olive oil
toasted almond flakes Greek yogurt [400 gr]
pearl couscous [500 gr]
horseradish puree [20 gr]
mix of seasonal lettuce & arugula

MZE FOOD

+32 14 70 37 81
info@mze.be www.mze.be Kerkstraat 3, 2200 Herentals, Belgium

RECIPE

Remove the leaves of the red beet, leaving about an inch of stem. Wash gently, be careful not to break the skin, and place them in a pot of cold water. Boil the water and cook them for about 40 to 50 minutes until they are firmly cooked. Drain the beets and cool them down under running cold water. Remove the skin.

If you have the time, leave the beets in their boiling water to cool before draining; the flavors and nutrients that may have escaped during cooking will have a chance to be absorbed by the beets.

Cut the cooked beet into small chunks. Add balsamic vinegar and a pinch of salt. Squeeze the garlic on top of the beet and mix everything thoroughly. Let the mixture marinate for a while.

Chop the red onion and cook it in oil. Add sugar, raspberry vinegar, pepper, and salt. Let it stew for about 10 minutes on low heat.

For the finishing touch, mix the Greek yogurt with the cream and the horseradish puree. Add the juice of the lemon and finish with salt and pepper until the taste is right.

CHRISTINA'S TIP

Although roasting beets imparts a rich taste, it is best that you boil the beets instead of roasting them. The boiled beets remain firm and don't break down in the marinade as a softer roasted beet would.

GRAIN RISOTTO

According to Greek mythology, Alpheus is the god of the Peloponnesian river of the same name. On the banks of this river, the Olympic games were organized. So it didn't take long to find a suitable name for this restaurant in the immediate surroundings of the Berchem Stadium. Alpheus is a high-level restaurant with unique, delicious dishes and drinks that make your mouth water. This Grain Risotto recipe is a vegetarian dish that will give you all the nutrients you need for a huge energy boost.

INGREDIENTS

lemon zest
shallots [2]
ebly [150 gr]
bulger [150 gr]
green asparagus
white wine [1 dl] Barilotto cheese vegetable stock [2 dl]
celeriac cream [200 gr]
diced and roasted celeriac [100 gr]
roasted chanterelle mushrooms [200 gr]

RECIPE

Roast the grains in some olive oil for about 2 minutes. Finely chop the shallots and add them to the grains. Next, add the white wine and allow everything to reduce gently until all the white wine has evaporated.

Add the vegetable stock and cook the grains until they are "al dente." Finally, add the celeriac cream and season everything with salt and pepper.

Serve the dish with diced roasted celeriac, green asparagus, and chanterelle mushrooms. Garnish with lemon juice and grate the Barilotto cheese over the dish. Bon appétit!

STIJN'S TIP

CRUNCHY COUSCOUS

't Contrast is a music & food restaurant in the heart of Westerlo. The cheerful Claar welcomes her customers here with a smile to her ears and spoils them with unique dishes on the sunny terrace or in the cozy restaurant. The origins of the dish's name is still a mystery, but many attribute it to the hissing sound as its steam moves through the holes of the couscoussière (steamer). While traveling to Morocco, Claar and Bruno ate with the local families to discover the best ingredients that make up this delicious dish.

INGREDIENTS

lemon
raisins
nut mix
couscous
chickpeas
fresh cilantro
chicken broth
fresh coriander
flat leaf parsley

RECIPE

Place the couscous in a bowl and pour the boiling chicken broth over it. Let stand for a moment so the couscous can absorb the chicken broth.

Roughly chop the fresh cilantro and flat parsley. Go through the couscous with a fork. Add the chickpeas, raisins, nut mixture, cilantro and flat parsley and set aside.

After letting the couscous drop to room temperature it is time to serve! Finish with the juice of half a lemon and some extra fresh cut coriander on top!

CLAAR'S TIP

The dish can be made incredibly unique by adding your own choice of nut mix. What could also be another twist to recipe is adding dates instead of raisins.

NIGIRI SUSHI

Amsterdammer Ed Balke brought his passion for pure flavors and healthy cuisine to Antwerp South in 1978. It started with an interest in macrobiotics and the discovery of the subtle taste of simple ingredients. He recognized this search for purity in the Japanese way of dealing with food. After a few years in Japan - during which he immersed himself in Japanese culture in all kinds of ways - he decided to introduce this then largely unknown cuisine to the Belgian public in his very own restaurant IZUMI. The eternal quest for the freshest fish and the exceptional quality of sushi made IZUMI famous far beyond Antwerp.

INGREDIENTS

wasabi
 sticky rice
 rice vinegar
 marinated ginger
 Ika - Squid
 Langoustine
 Shake - Salmon
 Suzuki - Sea Bass
 Hamachi - Yellowtail fish
 Aji - Striped Horse Mackerel
 Akami - center of the Bluefin tuna
 Toro - belly part of the Bluefin tuna
 Tamagoyaki - Japanese omelette

IZUMI

+32 3 216 13 79
 info@izumi.be www.izumi.be Beeldhouwersstraat 44, 2000 Antwerpen

RECIPE

Use a rice cooker or pan to cook the sushi rice. As a guideline for the amount of water, assume about 1.5 cups of water per cup of rice. Let it boil gently for about 15 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and let the rice steam in the pan for another 10 minutes. If all goes well, the rice is very sticky. Let the rice cool down completely.

Put the rice in a bowl (hangiri) and carefully add the rice vinegar. Be careful not to stir the rice! After all these steps, all you have to do is let the rice cool down.

Cut the ingredients into small slices. Take a handful of rice and make an oblong ball with it and put the raw fish on top. Finally, it should be compressed into a whole. This has to be done very carefully! Serve the sushi with some ginger, wasabi and a bowl of soy sauce.

ED'S TIP

Directly, Nigiri translates to "two fingers". As the name implies, this is a small, delicious treat that features a thinly-sliced drapery of raw fish, laid over a cluster of sweet and salty vinegared rice. The roll is chilled, and the smooth taste of the fish combines with the sticky and tangy flavor of the rice to create an absolutely superb mouthfeel.

The best nigiri sushi is typically made with bluefin tuna, salmon, or halibut. These types of fish are very firm, and have a relatively high fat content that makes them melt in your mouth, and which perfectly matches the sweetness and saltiness of the rice.

NORTH SEA BOUILLABAISSE

According to Greek mythology, Alpheus is the god of the Peloponnesian river of the same name. On the banks of this river, the Olympic games were organized. So it didn't take long to find a suitable name for this restaurant in the immediate surroundings of the Berchem Stadium. Alpheus is a high-level restaurant with unique, delicious dishes and drinks that make your mouth water. Bouillabaisse is a Provençal dish from Marseille. Instead of fish and seafood from the Mediterranean, we try to use as many local products as possible. So this version of Bouillabaisse features seafood from our North Sea.

INGREDIENTS

olive oil
fennel herb sea lavender leek [500 gr]
fish stock [4l]
garlic [5 cloves]
shallots [250 gr]
thyme [5 sprigs]

RECIPE

Cut the leeks and tomatoes into chunks. Heat the olive oil in a frying pan and add the finely chopped shallots, the chopped garlic and the sliced leeks. After 2 minutes, also add the sliced tomatoes, the tomato paste, the saffron threads and the sprigs of thyme.

Deglaze with the white wine and let the alcohol evaporate. Add the fish stock and bring up to boil for 15 minutes.

Cut the ling fillet into small portions and fry them. Bring the bouillabaisse back to a boil and add the mussels. Cook slowly until the mussels open. Place all the garnishes nicely on a plate and finish with the fennel herb and sea lavender.

STIJN'S TIP

Serve the dish in a deep plate and pour the bouillabaisse over the fish at the table. This gesture adds to the experience! Would you like a little crunch as well? Then make your own croutons in the oven! Simply oil a piece of bread and bake it in the oven until it is crunchy. Then go over one side of the bread with a piece of garlic. Yummy!

TSIPOURA STO FOURNO

MZE is the place to be for traditional Greek cuisine. Imagine a table full of mezze to share with friends and family in a modern and trendy establishment. Tsipoura sto fourno is a classic, delicate and straightforward Greek recipe for a big Dorade fish. You can find this fish in different countries with different names. For example, “Daurade Royale” In France, Germany, USA & Canada, also known as “Sea Bream” in UK, “Goldbrasse” in Germany, “Dourada” in Portugal, and “Tsipoura” in Greece. No matter how you call it, you will get in love with cooking it.

INGREDIENTS

lemon
sea salt
Dorade fish [1]
cup Ouzo [1/3]
slices of tomato fennel seeds [1 tsp]
purified sea water [150 ml]
Greek dried oregano [1 tsp]
extra virgin olive oil [1/2 cup]
freshly ground Greek black pepper

RECIPE

Using a sharp knife, score the fish lengthwise, from the belly side, starting at the head and ending at the tail, but without the tip of the knife reaching the backbone. In this way, the belly opening is simply enlarged without cutting the fish in two.

Season the fish with freshly ground black pepper and oregano. Don't forget to season the belly of the fish. Place the Dorade in a sealer bag, pour the olive oil and the sea water over the fish and seal the bag. Place the sealed bag in the fridge and let the fish marinate for a few hours.

Preheat the oven to 200° C. Brush a baking dish with a bit of olive oil. Cut open the sealed bag and arrange the fish in the baking dish. Place a few tomato slices on top of the fish. Salt the fish and bake it in the oven for 25 minutes.

CHRISTINA'S TIP

Serve the fish with the remaining oil from the baking dish and squeeze a little lemon juice over it. Garnish with a fresh salad and lemon slices. The finishing touch? Have a piece of oven-fresh Greek bread with it to enjoy the delicious sauce.

FISH & CHIPS

The wild cod and other seasonal fresh fish are sourced every week directly from the local fish market and the menu will change according to the seasons. The potatoes come from local farmers and everything is cooked in vegetable oil making a very light, crispy batter covering the succulent fish. Unlike fish fried in animal fat, Kanejin fish and chips are better for you whilst retaining the authentic taste. The shop is open every day of the week, allowing hungry diners the chance to enjoy delicious fish and chips almost any time they want.

INGREDIENTS

turmeric
 bonito dashi bouillon
 plain flour [50 gr]
 cornflour [50 gr] lager beer [75 ml]
 sparkling water [75 ml]
 baking powder [1 tsp]
 sunflower oil, for frying [1 l]
 fillet sustainable cod, hake or haddock, halved [400 gr]

thick chips
 plain flour [2 tbsp]
 sunflower oil [2 tbsp]
 potatoes, Maris Piper or Desiree, peeled or sliced [750 gr]

RECIPE

Combine the flour, cornflour, baking powder and turmeric in a large bowl, season, then spoon 1 tbsp onto a plate and set aside. Gradually pour the beer, water & bonito dashi bouillon into the bowl, stirring with a wooden spoon until you have a smooth, lump-free batter. Leave to rest for 30 mins while you prepare the chips.

Heat oven to 200 degrees. Boil a large pan of water, then add the chipped potatoes and boil for 2-3 mins until the outsides are just tender but not soft. Drain well, then tip onto a large baking tray with the flour, oil and some salt. Gently toss together until all the potatoes are evenly coated and the flour is no longer dusty. Roast for 30 mins, turning occasionally, until the chips are golden and crisp.

To cook the fish, heat the 1 litre oil in a deep saucepan until a drop of batter sizzles and crisps up straight away. Pat the fish dry with kitchen paper, then toss it in the reserved turmeric flour mix. Shake off any excess, then dip into the batter. Carefully lower each fillet into the hot oil and fry for 6-8 mins - depending on the thickness of the fish - until golden and crisp. Using a large slotted spoon, lift out the fish, drain on kitchen paper, then sprinkle with salt. Serve with the hot chips and homemade sauces of your choice!

AKIRA'S TIP

You can spice up the taste of your fish & chips by changing out beers! Be aware to only use blonde beers to change up the style of your batter.

RECIPE

It is actually a simple recipe to make, the hard part is finding the specific spices that you like for your kara-age, First cut chicken thighs into bite-sized pieces.

Next up we take the garlic, ginger, sake, soy sauce, salt and pepper and mix them in a bowl. This will be our wet mix to flavour up the batter for the chicken crisps. After the mixing we marinate the pieces of chicken in sauce for about 30 mins.

While the chicken is resting and taking up the taste of our marinade we will start making the flour mix for our crispy outside. Take a bowl and mix the flour potato starch and season it with salt & pepper to add some punch.

Time to heat up your oil and start frying! Take the chicken out of the fridge and roll it in the dry mix. After the oil is up to 160° fry the pieces for 4 minutes and take them out.

Just before serving fry again at 190° for 30 seconds, this will make sure we have extra crisp and that the chicken is hot on the inside!

AKIRA'S TIP

Add a squeeze of lemon or lime to the chicken to add a little bit of zing to the dish. Dips of choice can range from ketchup to even mustard!

MOROCCAN CHICKEN TAGINE

't Contrast is a music & food restaurant in the heart of Westerlo. The cheerful Claar welcomes her customers here with a smile to her ears and spoils them with unique dishes on the sunny terrace or in the cozy restaurant. The word tagine refers to both the conical-shaped dish and the food that's cooked inside it, which is usually a blend of delicious sweet and savoury flavours. Traditionally the ingredients were packed into the pot, the lid was popped on tight, then it was cooked slowly over a smouldering charcoal fire. At home it's cooked slowly in the oven or on the stovetop. The flavours that are packed in 't Contrast take on the traditional recipe will take you straight to the Middle East.

INGREDIENTS

onion
 carrot zucchini
 potato [2]
 chicken broth
 chicken legs [2]
 lemon zest [2 slices]
 sweet bell pepper
 chickpeas [1tsp]
 green olives [1 tsp]
 Ras el Hanout [1 tsp]

 Coriander seeds (ground)

RECIPE

Wash and cut the vegetables and potato into large pieces, cut the onion into rings. It's nice to have big veggies to colour up your dish!

Sprinkle the chicken legs with ras el hanout and let them marinate for a while. Don't be afraid to rub in the flavours. Fry the chicken legs until golden brown in a tagine with olive oil and set them aside once done.

Fry the onion in the same tagine and add the vegetables and potato. You can start adding salt and pepper to your liking! Let it cook for five more minutes.

Place the chicken legs in the tagine and finish with the olives, lemon and chickpeas. Sprinkle with the Ras el Hanout, salt and pepper, ground coriander seeds and cumin and add a small ladle of chicken stock Place the lid on the tagine and place in the oven at 175°C for 35 minutes. Once done, place it on the center of the table and remove the lid, et voilà!

CLAAR'S TIP

You can mix and match the vegetables you like, this means it is not necessary to use any meats if you don't want. The flavours are the biggest asset to the final dish!

LASAGNA SUSKEWIET

Suskewiet is a small, family owned and child-friendly pancake house with a spacious and cozy heated garden terrace. In addition to an extensive range of sweet and savory pancakes, the menu also offers a wide range of croques, pastas, egg dishes and ice cream sundaes. Did you know that the terrace was designed by Sempre! It still is one of those places where you feel like coming home after a hard day of work.

INGREDIENTS

egg
milk
flour
onion
butter
chicory
parsley
nutmeg
cooked ham
grated cheese
lasagna sheets
A pinch of salt and pepper

RECIPE

Preheat the oven to 200 °C. Remove the outer leaves from the chicory. Cut the stalks into strips. Heat 1/3 of the butter and sauté the chicory, onion, and ham for 5 minutes until the chicory is soft and starting to color. Season with salt, pepper, and nutmeg.

Melt the rest of the butter in a saucepan and add the flour while stirring. Gradually pour in the milk and let it bind while stirring. Add half of the grated cheese and season with nutmeg, pepper, and salt.

Take a baking dish and cover the bottom with a layer of your freshly made cheese sauce. Place half of the lasagna sheets on top. Be careful not to overlap the layers. Arrange half of the braised chicory, onion, and cooked ham. Cover this layer again with the other half of the remaining sauce. Make a final layer with the rest of the lasagna sheets, chicory, onion, and ham, and top off with the rest of the sauce. Sprinkle the dish with the rest of the grated cheese.

Place in the preheated oven for 30 minutes. Fry an egg sunny side up and chop the parsley and sprinkle over the dish. Add the egg as a finishing touch!

SUSKEWIET'S TIP

An alternative to the ham is to use eggplant slices to make it a full fledged vegetable dish! Be sure to roast the slices before using them; as they will otherwise create moisture in between the layers of our lasagne.

TRIPPLE BOUNCER

Suskewiet is a small, family owned and child-friendly pancake house with a spacious and cozy heated garden terrace. In addition to an extensive range of sweet and savory pancakes, the menu also offers a wide range of croques, pastas, egg dishes and ice cream sundaes. Did you know that the terrace was designed by Sempre! It still is one of those places where you feel like coming home after a hard day of work. A royal breakfast or a luxurious lunch? Then this cheese / ham and egg bouncer is the ultimate recipe.

INGREDIENTS

eggs bread
butter
pickle
cheese
chicory
butter
green beans
iceberg lettuce
pineapple slices
white pearl onions
white cabbage lettuce

RECIPE

Spread the slices of bread with butter. Cover generously with ham and cheese. Melt some butter in a frying pan. Fry the eggs in it sunny side up. When breaking the eggs, try to keep the yolk whole. A good bouncer has whole yolks that are still soft inside. As soon as you put the eggs in the pan, turn the heat down low so that the egg white can slowly coagulate. Now slide the egg onto the ham and cheese sandwiches.

Cut the pickle into a fan and place it on the plate. Garnish with tomato slices, iceberg lettuce, pineapple slices, green beans, white cabbage lettuce, white pearl onions and chicory. Season the bouncer with salt and pepper.

SUSKEWIET'S TIP

A little more spice? Then opt for a bacon bouncer. Fry the bacon and replace the ham with the bacon. Spread the bread with herb butter or herb cheese.

COCHINITA PIBIL

Cochinita Pibil is a traditional method of cooking pork in the Yucatan of Mexico. Its marinated in citrusy achiote or annatto marinade and then cooked in banana leaves. Using our homemade flour tortillas, pickled red onions and salsa verde, we are assembling the best authentic Mexican tacos that you can make in your home kitchen. At Sempre we made a little twist on the recipe by using special selected meats!

INGREDIENTS

salt
lime Juice
garlic cloves
achiote paste
white vinegar
Mexican oregano
whole cumin, toasted
whole coriander, toasted
fresh squeezed orange juice
bone-in pork butt cut into a thick slab

Sempre Life

+32 14 28 36 36
hello@sempre.life
www.sempre.life
Grensstraat 18, 2270 Herenthout

RECIPE

Start by marinating and salting the pork. If your pork came with the skin still on, remove it as it will only get in the way from the marinade penetrating the meat. Then salt the pork liberally on all sides. Set that aside while you prepare the achiote marinade.

In a blender, add the orange juice, lime juice, achiote paste, toasted cumin and coriander (or ground versions of both), the garlic, Mexican oregano (which I forgot in my video) and white vinegar. Blend that into a thick sauce. It should smell vibrant. Then pour that marinade over the pork, cover it, and refrigerate for 4-24 hours.

The following day, preheat the oven to 162 degrees. In a big roasting pan with high sides, start to layer the banana leaves. They are a bit brittle. A method for making them more playable is by letting them sit on an open flame. When you have a base layer down, add the pork top with all the marinade. Then begin to wrap the pork in the banana leaves. Add a few more on top to seal everything in well. Then add 1 cup of water on top of the banana leaves and wrap tightly in foil. Toss that in the oven for 4-5 hours, or until that bone will slide out without any resistance. While that cooks, you have enough time to make the salsa verde and the tortillas.

When the pork is cooked and the bone pulls out, take it out of the oven and let it cool before handling. Once cooled, discard the banana leaves. Then shred the meat, picking through any gross fat or connective tissue. Once shredded, mix it all together, getting all the different muscles of the pork to mix together and to coat and start to absorb that cooking liquid. .

You just made an authentic taco start to finish, from scratch. Your work will be rewarded with some of the best tacos of your life.

GRILLED LAMB SHOULDER

Sempre's cuisine has a pseudo fusion (or should we say confusion) character based on a mono-product concept. Not based on cultures, regions, or religions but experiences, tastes, and emotions. The focus is on good technique, seasonability, and sustainability - on boundless creativity. The food has attitude, personality, and honesty and is humble without excess or ego.

INGREDIENTS

honey
sumac
pepper
olive oil
hot chillis
wild leek rosemary
fresh coriander
barrel tomatoes
sweet red onion
crushed garlic [2 cloves]
smoked paprika powder
grass fed lamb [shoulder]
home made tkemali sauce

RECIPE

The shoulder of lamb is marinated in spices (sumac, pepper, olive oil, rosemary) with the addition of honey for a minimum of 24 hours, then the lamb shoulder is cooked for 8 hours using the sous-vide method at 165°F / 74°C.

The meat is evenly baked in its own juice, has a delicate texture and filled with expressive taste. The dish is served with rings of sweet red onion, fresh coriander, barrel tomatoes, wild leek and homemade tkemali sauce.

SEMPRE MOSCOW'S TIP

The best meats can be found by buying from sustainable farms. If you want to make a vegan version of the dish we suggest to use bell peppers and fill them with home made tofu!

CHUNKY GUACAMOLE

The Aztecs first made guacamole prior to the 16th century. Early guacamole was made purely of avocado. The modern name derives from the Nahuatl word, guacamole. Guacamole literally translates to “avocado sauce”. Guacamole became incredibly popular in Mesoamerican society because of the abnormal nutritional value of avocados. Avocados have a very high fat and protein content for a fruit. Diets in the society had a relatively low fat content and as such it became a vital element of the diet of the people native to its habitat. In addition, the Aztecs believed guacamole to be an aphrodisiac, further increasing its popularity.

lime
cumin
cilantro
corn oil
hot chili's
red onion
dried herbs
ripe avocados
roasted pine seeds
crushed garlic [1 clove]
smoked paprika powder
ground coriander seeds

RECIPE

Scoop the flesh of the avocados into a bowl and add some fresh lime juice to prevent discoloration. Chop and add the rest of the ingredients and mash away. Just don't go overboard with the mixing; we want our guacamole to stay chunky and retain some bite!

Add oven-roasted pine nuts for added crisp if you want. Use only very ripe avocados and don't be afraid to add a lot of chilis. Habaneros or rawits are our personal favorites!

SEMPRE'S TIP

Tastes great with focaccia, toasted bread or nachos. It pairs amazingly well with a piece of poached fish or ceviche!

CRISPY HUMMUS

---

Although multiple different theories and claims of origins exist in various parts of the Middle East, evidence is insufficient to determine the precise location or time of the invention of hummus. Its basic ingredients—chickpeas, sesame, lemon, and garlic—have been combined and eaten in Egypt and the Levant over centuries. Though regional populations widely ate chickpeas, and often cooked them in stews and other hot dishes, puréed chickpeas eaten cold with tahini do not appear before the Abbasid period in Egypt and the Levant. The earliest known written recipes for a dish resembling hummus bi tahina are recorded in cookbooks written in Cairo in the 13th century.

INGREDIENTS

nuts
oil [210 gr]
tahini [25 gr]
lemon [1 kg] garlic [150 gr]
chick peas [100 gr]
sunflower seeds [90 gr]

RECIPE

Hummus is the Arabic word for chick pea. At Sempre we like to use more nuts than usual to add extra body, flavor and intensity to the dip. This isn't just ordinary hummus! Boil the canned chick peas for half an hour or longer. Don't throw out the cooking water though: we will use it later to give our hummus the right smoothness. Use a selection of peeled nuts and seeds and roast them in a frying pan or oven. The sunflower seeds and pistachios will provide extra flavor and crunch. Use a mortar rather than a blender and make sure to keep the nuts chunky so that the hummus retains plenty of crunch.

If desired, add a drizzle of sesame oil or any nut oil of your choosing to enhance the umami in the dish. Be careful not to overdo it though, as this would make the dish too greasy.

SEMPRE'S TIP

Pairs perfectly with chicken or garlicky seafood and makes a great alternative for carbs.

MEZZIKI

A long time ago, when the Ottoman Empire was still in full trading swing, India enjoyed the simple pleasures of raita sauce, a seasoned yogurt-based dip. During this time, the Indian people were ruled by an elite Persian class that enjoyed the North Indian rice dish known as biryani. However, the Indians would make the rice dish too spicy for the palette of the Persian elite. To balance out the spices' fire, the Persians began to enjoy the soothing taste of the raita sauce. Cool as a cucumber and soothing as yogurt, this classic Indian sauce was the perfect solution to spicy rice. More than any other nation in the Ottoman Empire, the Greeks enjoyed this dish immensely. However, they also experimented with this classic cucumber and yogurt dip until its Indian roots were almost invisible. Tzatziki (derived from the Turkish word cacık) was born.

chives
olive oil
sea salt
fresh mint
ricotta [1/3] garlic [1 clove]
mascarpone [1/3]
Greek yoghurt [1/3]
freshly ground cardamom
vinegar: white wine or rice lemon

RECIPE

This refreshing tzatziki-inspired dip has Middle Eastern and Indian touches and makes a great side for spicy dishes. Grind fresh cardamom, mint and garlic using mortar and pestle. Go easy on the garlic though: it's the support and not the quarterback in this dip. Mix the cheese, add in the herbs, spices and salt, and add the juice and zest of a lemon. Top off with soft high-quality olive oil. Add salt if and as needed. Leave in a fridge for a minimum of 30 min. to give the cardamom the time to work its magic. Add more cardamom if needed. Spring onion for crunch, chives for color and if desired a drizzle of sushi vinegar.

Use only top ingredients such as fresh cheese, coarse sea salt and fresh mint. Use a traditional mortar and pestle.

SEMPRE'S TIP

Challenge your taste buds with something hot and fiery and use our refreshing Mezziki to counteract the spiciness! Also makes a great spread for chicken vegetable sandwiches.

SEMPRE SALSA

Salsa is traced back to the times of the Aztecs, Incas, and Mayans. The native people created their own versions of salsa using tomatoes, chilies, and squash seeds, however “official discovery” to the rest of the world did not occur until after the Spaniards conquered Mexico in the 1500s. This mix of ingredients became popular throughout Spanish civilization, and in 1571, Alonso de Molina named the dish ‘salsa.’ A favorite appetizer and snack around the world today, salsa is used at tailgates, in restaurants, and even at parties. Besides the fact that it is so tasty, salsa also has numerous health benefits, a large popularity, and is easy to make.

chilis
garlic
red onion
parsley [1/4]
tarragon [1/4]
lime or lemon
bell pepper mix
olive oil or truffle oil
cilantro tomatoes (peel & squeeze) [2/4 ]

RECIPE

Peel some sweet ripe tomatoes and squeeze out the juice. Put them in a colander and drizzle with salt to draw out the moisture. This way, our salsa will stay nice and thick! Cut the onion and let it rest in lukewarm water while chopping up the rest of the ingredients. Feel free to remove the skin of the peppers if you have a sensitive stomach. Roast the skin over an open flame, put the peppers in a sealed bag or pot and let them sit for 30 minutes before rubbing off the skin. Doing so will add a wonderfully smokey flavor to the salsa! Don't skimp on the herbs! The stems of the parsley and tarragon are best removed, whereas the cilantro should be used whole. Try to use more herbs than you normally would! The Sempres Salsa should look a bit like tabbouleh without bulgur: lots and lots of herbs! Chop up the peppers, tomatoes, garlic, onion, and chilis. Squeeze in some lemon or lime juice and add a bit of zest if desired. Top off with high-quality olive or corn oil.

Some cool tips to mix things up are Truffle oil or rice vinegar for an unexpected flavor boost. And of course adding tarragon and using Madame Jeanette/Scotch Bonnet chilis.

SEMPRE'S TIP

Serve on a chopping board for people to eat off & generously add lime juice, sprinkle with a pinch sugar and spread over raw salmon or cod. Let sit for 15 minutes et voilà, a shortcut ceviche!

Lavin's rolling bar is a full-service professional cocktail bar on wheels, suitable for every occasion. Mango cocktails are a common drink on the beaches of southern Thailand, and this recipe lets you enjoy them in your own backyard paradise. This drink is so delicious, it won't be hard to imagine you're near the sunshine and surf of a tropical beach.

INGREDIENTS

Havana Club rum [5 cl] Falernum syrup [2cl]
lime juice [2 cl]
mango [4cl]

RECIPE

Peel the mango and cut it into small pieces. Trim away the remaining flesh from the stone and drop all the flesh into a blender.

Use a measuring cup to precisely measure the Havana Club rum, lime juice, Falernum syrup and mango puree. Pour all these ingredients into a cocktail shaker and fill the shaker with ice. Shake very hard for about 10 seconds. Open the shaker and use a strainer to keep the ice in the shaker. Pour everything into an ice-cold Sempre glass filled with crushed ice.

Use a mint sprig to garnish the drink. Finish with a fancy straw and you're ready to enjoy your delicious Mango Borracho cocktail.

ROLANDO'S TIP

Rather than peeling the mango and then slicing, there is an easy trick for cutting the flesh without peeling. First, cut through the mango slightly off-center to avoid the pit. Scoop out the flesh with a spoon or score the cut piece lengthwise and crosswise into cubes and scoop them away from the peel. Do the same on the other side of the mango.

PINEAPPLE FUNK

The greatest adventures happen after cocktails. So let's get started! These recipes were created by Rolando Lavin, inventor of the unique rolling bar concept. Lavin's rolling bar is a full-service professional cocktail bar on wheels, suitable for every occasion. The Old Fashioned goes island-hopping through the Caribbean with this cocktail recipe. Traditionally, an Old Fashioned cocktail is made with 2 ounces of bourbon, sugar, and bitters. This recipe takes this same recipe format and uses rum instead—effectively making it a Rum Old Fashioned. It's an excellent drink to help you day-dream of your ideal tropical paradise.

INGREDIENTS

pineapple [2] Bacardi rum [5 cl]
caster sugar [200 gr]
lime zest and juice [2]
cocoa bitters [2 dashes]

RECIPE

Peel the pineapple and roughchop its flesh, including the core. Put it in a pan with 150ml water and add the lime juice and lime zest. Boil the mixture, then reduce the heat to low and allow the mixture to stew for about 10 minutes. Remove from the heat and strain the mixture through a jelly bag or muslin-lined sieve until it stops dripping.

Measure the strained juice and use 30 g of sugar for every 100 ml of juice. Add the sugar to the juice and cook over low heat until the sugar dissolves. Then turn up the heat and bring the mixture to a boil. Let it boil gently for 2 to 3 minutes. After cooling, pour the mixture into a bottle and store in the refrigerator for a week.

Use a measuring cup to pour the Bacardi rum into a mixing glass. Add 3 cl of the homemade pineapple cordial and top with 2 dashes of cocoa bitters. Mix everything with a bar spoon for 60 seconds. Pour the ice-cold cocktail into a pre-chilled Sempre glass with a large clear ice cube. Finish the cocktail with a halfdried pineapple.

ROLANDO'S TIP

The homemade pineapple cordial can also be used in many other cocktail recipes. Do you prefer a non-alcoholic drink? Then dilute the flavor with sparkling water or, for a sweeter drink, lemonade. For the non-alcoholic drinks, use the ratio one part syrup to 4 parts water or soda water.
